Solstice BBQ set Saturday, June 24

Our June meeting will be Saturday the 24th at the Adams Street BBQ slab. Commodore Sue will bring her pavilion tent ; KYFC will provide burgers, hot dogs and buns; and it will be potluck for all else. Potluck starts at 6 p.m., with meeting underway at 7 p.m. Plan on sunshine and a great picnic!

News tidbits from Kenai Fjords Yacht Club

Web Page: Thanks go to Bill Ennis for further research on the possibility of a Web page for our far-flung membership. Turns out a ballpark figure for server and name registration would be around $87 per year. Bill has offered to be our webmaster for free. How do you like that? Bring your ideas and views to the June 24 meeting for a vote.

Mariners' Memorial: The City Council has approved the concept of the Mariners' Memorial, now it's just a waiting period for our favorite site to be turned over to the City of Seward before we get into gear to go after the location. We would like to thank the following businesses for their support letters that have been so important in getting this groundwork accomplished: the Alaska SeaLife Center, Seward Harbor Department, Hertz Car Rentals, Seward Harbor Business Association, F/V Kruzof, Seward Charter Boat Association, Metco, Inc., Rotary Club of Seward, Tanya Sandefur, The Seward Chamber of Commerce, Seward Economic Development Council, Alaska Saltwater Charters and Ron Long Marine Surveys.

As a representative of the effort towards a Mariner's Memorial, I would like to thank Bill Alloway for his donation to the Memorial Fund.

Change is a-coming! New dock cart combo will be 0620.
